Bohemian Chic

This unique indie style exudes a life filled with Wanderlust, blending old and new decor to create a look that is inspiring, whimsical and well lived-in.

Item #19043014

SIGNATURE TRAITS

- A range of colors, including bright jewel tones, warm neutrals, earthy hues and metallics
- Mix-and-match patterns and accessories
- Loads of layers (pillows, area rugs, throw blankets)
- Contrasting textures, from jute and leather to chenille and silk
- Indoor plant life
- Ikat, Suzani and Aztec designs

TIPS FOR ACHIEVING THE LOOK

- Moroccan-style accents, mismatched decor, wall tapestries, fringe, eclectic wall art, leafy potted plants, canopies, beaded curtains, macrame, lanterns, antique pieces that tell a story

Farmhouse

All-American farmhouse style showcases earthy color palettes, laid-back spaces, and simple details with rustic charm.

Item # 21502813

SIGNATURE TRAITS

- Classic farmhouse style includes shiplap, exposed wood beams and open shelving
- Mixed materials like wicker, wood and metal accents can instantly add dimension to any space.
- Weathered finishes give furniture a lived-in look

TIPS FOR ACHIEVING THE LOOK

- Accessorize using wire baskets, mix-and-match décor, relaxed fabrics like cotton, vintage wall art and simple floral accents.
- Warm up natural hardwood flooring commonly found in farmhouses with a new area rug or patterned runner. You can add a splash of color or keep things simple with neutral tones.

Mid-Century Modern

Mid-Century Modern may have roots in the 1940's, but with its clean lines and classic streamlined shapes, it's a look that will never go out of style.

SIGNATURE TRAITS

- Sleek lines and sharp, eye-catching angles
- Wooden furniture often made of oak or teak
- Low profile sofas in solid colors with splayed legs
- Bold accent chairs in unique shapes: butterfly, lounge, swan, molded Eames
- Pendant lighting, sculpted lamps, metallic floor lamps
- Geometric patterns

TIPS FOR ACHIEVING THE LOOK

- Incorporate colorful accents and furniture, but keep walls neutral. White is preferred.
- Allow wooden details to take center stage.
- Add retro wall art, vintage-inspired accents and sunburst mirrors.
- Blend old and new to prevent your space from looking dated.

Scandinavian

Known for its crisp lines, muted interiors and understated elegance, Scandinavian style is all about chic minimalism and hygge, a Danish word translating to 'cozy' and 'relaxing.'

Item # 20562194

SIGNATURE TRAITS

- Cool color schemes, shades of gray and clean white lines
- Black or monochromatic accents and wall art
- Modern metallic lighting
- Natural wooden flooring and furniture
- An occasional pop of color. Blue is a favorite!
- Decor that serves a purpose- functionality is key

TIPS FOR ACHIEVING THE LOOK

- Cut out excess clutter. Less is more with this scaled-back style.
- Breathe life into your space with houseplants, including succulents and cacti.
- Incorporate natural elements like knit blankets, faux fur throws, and wicker baskets.
- Practice hygge by creating an inviting sanctuary to enjoy relaxing and entertaining friends and family.
